TE Asia Healthcare Partners CEO Weighs in on Team-based Health Care & COVID-19

On 16 March 2020, TE Asia Healthcare Partners CEO Eng Aik Meng was interviewed by BFM 89.9 The Business Station's Noelle Lim on her podcast, "The Breakfast Grille".

In this informative interview, Aik Meng who is also the Chairman of Integrated Oncology Centres (IOC), talked about why specialty hospitals, as opposed to general hospitals, will experience a wave of growth in Asia in the future. Aik Meng touched on the various advantages of specialty hospitals and described the benefits of team-based care, where doctors work together to give the best treatment to patients. The interview ends with Aik Meng discussing how private hospitals can help public hospitals treat patients who have been infected by COVID-19.
